

INDIA'S DIVERSITY AND DEVELOPMENT (15 days)

India

Delhi > Agra > Bangalore > Mumbai

India, along with the four other BRICS nations, is one of the significant driving forces in today's global marketplace.

This study abroad program provides an insight into the political, historical, and cultural diversity of modern India, devoting particular attention to religion such as: Hindu and Muslim. Through directed study opportunities, lectures, and interactions with Indian students, participants will analyze how tradition and modernity interact in this rapidly changing nation and how technology brings a new, fascinating dimension to this bustling and colorful country.
