

About the Program

This program offers an exciting and interactive summer study abroad experience that blends classroom learning with engaging guest lectures, visits to various sites, and practical training in key areas such as stakeholder analysis, strategic planning, goal setting, mediation, social responsibility, intercultural negotiation, and leadership. Upon completing the program, students will be better equipped to take on leadership roles in a globalized world.

Students will live and study at the European Study Center which is housed at the Château de Pourtalès (pictured on front cover). The historic castle was built in 1750 and some of Europe's most distinguished nobility, philosophers, and musicians have visited or stayed in the castle. Today, it is host to students, academics, diplomats, and business leaders worldwide, making it an ideal location for the Intercultural Leadership Program.

Intercultural Leadership Summer Program

Program Overview

Designed for undergraduate students, the course content focuses primarily on business and political leadership. The instructors are from North American and European universities. This is an intensive program and students are encouraged to complete some of the required reading ahead of time.

About Strasbourg

Strasbourg is a modern, diverse, and multicultural city with a rich history spanning centuries that offers students an exciting study abroad experience. As one of Europe's capital cities, Strasbourg is the official seat of the European Parliament, Council of Europe, and Court of Human Rights. It is also an important center for political, governmental, and business leaders in Europe and worldwide.

Courses

SOCI 3332 Culturology-Cross-Cultural Communication – BINT 3366 Intercultural Communication
