
SUMMER
STRASBOURG
FRANCE
Leadership and Intercultural Communication

SUMMER INTERCULTURAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

This program offers an engaging summer study abroad experience combining classroom learning, guest lectures, site visits, and hands-on training in key skills like strategic planning, negotiation, and leadership. By the end, students are better prepared for leadership roles in a globalized world.

What's Included

2 courses = 6 semester credit hours

- SOCI 3332 / BINT 3366 – Intercultural Communication
- GOVT 4399 ST – Sustainable Leadership
- All-day corporate leadership workshop
- Orientation program
- Excursions to international and European companies and organizations
- Field trips to cultural sites in France and Germany

 Transcripts provided by CEPA's School of Record. Activities and excursions are subject to change.*

- Lectures, workshops, and professional seminars
- CEPA student housing in Strasbourg
- French continental breakfast daily
- Welcome & farewell meals
- Group airport pick-up on arrival day
- Personal support from on-site team
- Public transportation pass and select group meals during excursions
- 24/7 emergency support
- On-site CO_2 emissions offset by CEPA

About Strasbourg, France

Strasbourg, a modern, diverse, and multicultural city, is a significant player in European politics. As the official seat of the European Parliament, the Council of Europe, and the European Court of Human Rights, it is a key hub for political, governmental, and business leaders in Europe and worldwide. This political significance, combined with its status as a university town with a vibrant cultural and social scene, offers students an exciting study abroad experience. Students will live and study at the European Study Center (ESC), which is housed in the historic Château de Pourtalès.

ESC Strasbourg - Château de Pourtalès

Learn more:

www.cepa-abroad.org

escstrasbourg@cepa-abroad.org

August 2026